

Evanston-Creekside Community Association

Membership Form

Members are the key to any community. The community association exists for the benefit of all residents and develops programs and services to meet our diverse range of needs and interests. Your membership fees go towards the creation and development of these programs and activities, and administrative costs to run the association. Our community association is a volunteer run organization, and need your support in many ways. If you would like to get involved, whether it is for an hour or two, or to serve as a director on the board, please indicate your interests below. When we all get involved, it is amazing what we can accomplish. THANK YOU FOR YOUR INTEREST!
